

CITY OF TAMPICO IS EVACUATEDMexican Federals in Full Retreat.

REBELS SECURE PORT

Desperate Fighting Precedes Fall of Coast Town.

Washington, May 14.—Evacuation of Tampico by the Mexican federal garrison has begun, according to a relayed wireless dispatch to the navy department from Rear Admiral Mayo. Federal troops were leaving by the railroad, he said.

That the rebels encountered desperate resistance in their final attack on Tampico and that they were compelled to carry their fight to the heart of the town was indicated by Rear Admiral Mayo's report. He said that when it was reported the rebels had occupied Tampico there was heavy rifle firing in the plaza and that big gun firing continued.

Advices received by Constitutionalist here said the federals were evacuating Tampico, but details were lacking.

The federals were retreating by way of the railroad leading to San Luis Potosi and it was assumed that they hoped to reach Pachuca, the terminus of a railway line that leads indirectly to Mexico City. The railroad out of Tampico to Monterey is held by the Constitutionalist.

News of the fighting at Tampico came in brief dispatches to the navy department. First, Rear Admiral Mayo reported firing. He said that the federals lacked ammunition.

The taking of Tampico, the port next in importance to Vera Cruz, will raise many interesting questions, as the Constitutionalist have hitherto held no seacoast towns. It is possible that the federal gunboats outside the harbor may seek to prevent arms and supplies from landing at Tampico, but such an interference with international commerce might not be tolerated by the big foreign ships lying there and complications are possible.

SETS VERA CRUZ TALKING

Fall of Tampico Causes Much Speculation Here.

Vera Cruz, May 14.—The fall of Tampico and what it may mean is the subject of general speculation here. It is believed that the Constitutionalist have overrun the territory around San Luis Potosi and Monterey, which would make federal escape in that direction possible only by a continuous running fight for many miles.

Few, if any, foreigners remain in Tampico, according to the last reports.

The federals are maintaining the armistice so far as the Americans are concerned, according to a note from General Rubio Navarrete.

The logical movement of the victors from Tampico would be to join forces with those besieging San Luis Potosi.

BRITISH SUBJECTS KILLED

Ambassador Takes Up Case, but Redress Is Unobtainable.

Washington, May 14.—Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, called upon the state department in regard to two British subjects killed at Guadalajara. Latest advices indicate that these two men met their death at the hands of bandits and therefore it is impossible to obtain any sort of redress.

SIX MONTHS IN WORKHOUSE

Minister and Author Both Draw Terms for Rioting.

New York, May 14.—Bouck White, clergyman, author and Socialist, and Milo Woolman, writer, both Harvard graduates, were sentenced to the Blackwell's island workhouse by a police magistrate for their participation in the disorderly scenes last Sunday morning at the Calvary Baptist church, of which John D. Rockefeller and John D. Rockefeller, Jr., are attendants.

White and Woolman were two of a group which invaded the church during the services to make a public request of the pastor, Rev. Cornelius Woolfkin, to consent to debate the Colorado mine situation. A patrol wagon was called to the church after a demonstration in which White and his followers resisted efforts to eject them.

White and Woolman each was sentenced to serve six months.

STEPHENSON MAY DROP OUT

Wisconsin Senator May Throw Support to McGovern.

Milwaukee, May 14.—Reports from Washington and Marinette indicate that Senator Isaac Stephenson will not be a candidate for re-election to the United States senate, but will throw his influence to Governor McGovern, who is known to be planning to enter the race against Lieutenant Governor Morris, La Follette's protégé.

HONORING HERO DEAD.

Signal Tribute Paid to Vera Cruz Victims.

© 1914, by American Press Association.

Never before in the nation's history has such signal honor been paid to dead heroes as marked the services on the arrival of the bodies of the seventeen men who lost their lives at Vera Cruz. President Wilson was present and eulogized the memory of the men who died for their country. The picture shows one of the bodies being carried from the Montana.

GENERAL NARRETE
SUPERSEDES MAASChange of Commanders in Front of Vera Cruz.

Washington, May 14.—News reached Washington through official sources that General Narrete, one of the highest ranking officers in the Mexican federal army, had taken command of the forces outside Vera Cruz, superseding General Maas.

Vera Cruz, May 14.—President Huerta has placed General Narrete in command of the forces in front of Vera Cruz, with headquarters at Cordoba. It is believed that General Huerta has called General Maas to the capital to utilize him in the line of defense against the northern Constitutionalist.

General Narrete is regarded as the best military officer in the Mexican army. Placing him in charge of General Maas' command may have been done in part to the record of General Maas at Vera Cruz when the American forces landed. General Maas left the city early in the fighting without calling out all his troops. For this he was severely criticised by General Huerta.

LOUD CLAMOR FOR ADVANCE

Rebels at Torreon Are Eager to Move Forward.

Torreón, Mex., May 14.—"On to Saltillo, San Luis Potosi and Mexico City," is the constant cry heard everywhere here. In the streets, plazas, government offices, cafes and stores, the speedy advance is the thing they talk of. A note of impatience runs through the conversation and inquiry often brings the statement that Mexico is tired of war and an expression of regret that the United States replaced the embargo on arms.

Every measure to insure success at Saltillo and points further south is being taken. Ammunition is being concentrated here and at Monterey and the available food supplies are ample. Question of transporting the wounded has received special attention and many vehicles have been remodeled for that purpose. Large stores of medical supplies have arrived and the staff of physicians has been increased from fifteen to twenty.

OWEN WILL WRITE REPORT

Senate Committee at Odds Over Stock Exchange Bill.

Washington, May 14.—An open break in the senate banking and currency committee promises to mark Chairman Owen's attempt to have a favorable report made on his bill to regulate stock exchanges.

The bill came up before the committee and later Chairman Owen said that he had been authorized to make a favorable report. Only seven of the twelve members were present, however, and those opposed to the measure said a quorum was not present when the vote was taken and that the authorization to report favorably was not binding.

BIG NAVY NEEDED TO PROTECT CANAL

Does Ditch Strengthen or Weaken Military Power?

LIVE TOPIC FOR A DEBATE.

Advocates of Two Battleship Plan Point to Necessity For Strong Defenses at Both Atlantic and Pacific Ends—Stone Points to Folly of Twisting the British Lion's Tail.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 14.—[Special.]—Debating societies in small towns have used nearly every question possible under the sun as a subject of discussion and dispute. They should have something new, and they might take up this question: "Does the construction of the Panama canal strengthen or weaken the military power of the United States?" This subject has been debated at considerable length, and no one has been able to determine it; hence it will make a good subject of debate in the various societies that are educating young men and women to discuss various questions.

The Panama canal would not now be so near completion if it had not been for the trip of the Oregon around South America to join the Atlantic fleet during the Spanish war. The sending of the Oregon was a foolish thing because it was unnecessary, as the United States had three times the force on the Atlantic side; that was necessary to cope with anything that Spain could send against us.

Does It Double or Diminish? Following the Spanish war, the canal advocates began a systematic and strong effort for the building of the canal. Nearly all of them said that it would double the effectiveness of the navy. It was claimed that the navy could be used either in the Atlantic or the Pacific, as it was needed.

Since the canal has been almost completed, there has been the strongest kind of demand for increasing the navy in order to protect the canal. Advocates of more battleships have insisted that in order to protect the canal in time of war with any great power it will be necessary to have a strong fleet at each end of the canal. No wonder that certain members of congress are bewildered when they read the reasons for the canal and then the reasons for a much larger navy in order to defend the canal.

Stone and Tail Twisting.

After a severe illness Senator Stone of Missouri spent a long time in Virginia recuperating. In his speech on the Panama canal tolls he referred to certain phases of discussion of the subject as viewed from his retreat. "Looking from that distance," he said, "I was amused as I watched the antics of those who resorted to the antiquated and now almost harmless trick of twisting the knotted tail of the British lion."

"It was apparent that all these spectacular and ferocious tricks on the old lion's rear defenses and all the fusillades of eloquence fired at him by inflammatory congressional orators and all the extravagant expenditure of space devoted to him by old tomat newspaper romances had but one chief inspiration and purpose, which was to stir afresh the ancient and justly inherited hostility of the Irish people."

A Judgmental Man.

During the discussion of a bill in the house Congressman Mann had something to say about the committee on interstate and foreign commerce, of which Adamson of Georgia is chairman, and which brought out the following from the Georgia member: "I would not for the world differ with my distinguished friend on matters of judgment, for he is an exceedingly judgmental man." Jim Mann has been called almost everything in the house, but Adamson's statement fits him very neatly.

Fitzgerald's Demand.

The chairman of "the great committee on appropriations," as it is frequently called in the debates in the house, was sitting in the house restaurant surrounded by a number of friends and was concluding his luncheon. Presently the voice of Mr. Fitzgerald was heard, as if he was turning down a request for an increased appropriation in the house, as he said to a waiter:

"Bring me a piece of pie. Bring it on a clean plate. Bring a clean piece of pie and bring a clean piece of cheese."

"What have you been up against, Fitz?" asked one of his friends.

Mileage Again.

One day last week Congressman Cox of Indiana and Congressman Humphrey of Washington had a little tilt over mileage. Cox was miffed because Humphrey had criticised his course and charged Humphrey with being a mileage grabber because he came from a distant state. Humphrey came back and said that he had never "stood upon the floor of the house and made a speech condemning mileage and then been the first man at the window to grab what was coming to him." Humphrey insisted that the man who fought mileage ought not to take mileage, but there has never been a man yet that has turned down the mileage appropriation.

SENATOR THOMAS.

Colorado Democrat Favors No Tolls in Panama Canal.

THOMAS FAVORS NO TOLLS

Colorado Senator Will Stand by Baltimore Platform.

Washington, May 14.—Senator Thomas of Colorado, Democrat, announced in the senate that he felt himself bound by the platform to support exemption of American coastwise vessels from Panama canal tolls. He said he was bound to conclude that the leaders of his party knew as much about the tolls question at the time the Baltimore platform was adopted as now.

AMERICAN ENVOYS
PAY THEIR RESPECTSLamar and Lehmann Call on Peace Delegates.

Washington, May 14.—First formal steps in the program of mediation in the Mexican problem were taken here. Justice Lamar and Frederic W. Lehmann, together with their secretary, H. Perceval Dodge, who will represent the United States, paid their respects to the three South American envoys who have undertaken by diplomacy to solve the Mexican question.

The mediators were busy preparing for their departure and Counselor Robert Lansing, acting secretary of state, spent much time with the American representatives familiarizing them with the general situation.

Mr. Lansing said afterward that the status of the American representatives will be unofficial, as they will bear no credentials and will not have plenipotentiary powers. All steps will be "ad referendum"—that is, will be referred for final decision to the president and secretary of state at Washington.

The Lobos island incident still is giving some concern to the navy department. Secretary Daniels said that he intends to await arrival of detailed reports from Admiral Badger before undertaking to pass upon the conduct of Lieutenant Commander Jeffers of the destroyer Fanning in giving the Mexican lightkeeper a certificate to the effect that he had been dispossessed by force.

CRUSHED TO DEATH
BETWEEN ORE CARS.

Duluth, May 14.—Gilesti Galoranz, an Italian workman in the Lincoln mine near Virginia, was caught between two ore cars and was crushed to death. He was about thirty-seven years old.

SEVENTEEN SAILORS PERISH

Twelve Missing After Wreck and Five Others Drowned.

London, May 14.—The steam collier Turret Hill has sunk, owing to the shifting of her cargo, off South Wold, in the North sea. The chief engineer was picked up by a passing steamer.

The captain of the Turret Hill was picked up by another steamer after he had clung for several hours to a life buoy. The remainder of the crew, twelve, are believed to have been drowned.

A steam pilot cutter was sunk by a steamer in Bristol channel. Five men were drowned and sixteen saved.

BLIND MAN FOR SENATOR

Bull Moose of North Dakota Chooses Silver Serungard.

Minot, N. D., May 14.—Silver Serungard of Devils Lake will be Bull Moose candidate for United States senator. He was endorsed by the Progressive party members of the state committee at a meeting here. Mr. Serungard is blind. He formerly was a Democrat.

OFFICERS BLAME STRIKERS

Testify Miners Fired First Shots in Ludlow Battle.

Denver, May 14.—Lieutenants R. W. Benedict and S. J. Lammie, two officers of the Colorado national guard, were the chief witnesses at the trial of Major Patrick J. Hamrock before the general courtmartial. Major Hamrock is being tried on charges of murder, manslaughter, arson and larceny growing out of the battle between strikers and state troops at Ludlow April 20 and the subsequent fire that destroyed the strikers' tent colony.

The two officers, who acted under orders of Major Hamrock on that day, swore that the fight was started by strikers, who fired upon the national guardsmen.

Major Hamrock was not in the immediate vicinity of the tent colony when the fight started, they said, and in their opinion the fire was started by an explosion of an overturned lamp and not by the state troops.

Two women and eleven children who lost their lives in the colony, they believed, died of suffocation hours before the fight broke out.

DECRIES STRENUOUS LIFE

Secretary Redfield Says Hustler Has Become Back Number.

Providence, R. I., May 14.—"The strenuous life is, in most cases, the least effective and efficient," William C. Redfield, secretary of commerce, told the Brown university students in an address on "Effectiveness."

"It is an infantile view of industry which measures its results by either the duration or the extent of effort," he said.

"Both the hustler and the apostle of strenuousness have become back numbers in their methods. They are today in the same category with him who 'also ran.'"

"We deplore lives lost in war and have advocates of peace who are fluent in speech regarding the horrors of strife," he said. "Yet, while one must sympathize with those who have lost dear ones in battle, are we as eloquent and active as respects the many that are slain in industry?"

WILD SCENES OF DISORDER

Thousands Try to View Remains of Corporal Haggerty.

Cambridge, Mass., May 14.—Scenes of disorder attended the effort of thousands to view the body of Corporal Daniel A. Haggerty, one of the first to fall at Vera Cruz. Another immense crowd had gathered at the militia armory, where the body lay in state, and as only twelve policemen had been furnished for duty the result was confusion as the throng pressed forward to the doors, intent on paying a tribute of respect to the memory of the hero.

Women, children and men were knocked down and trampled upon. Many fainted and were taken into the armory.

More than 100 women were trampled upon and injured.

The street in the vicinity was littered with hats and other articles of clothing after the rush was over.

IMMENSE PUBLIC FUNERAL

Philadelphia Honors Two Sons Who Fell at Vera Cruz.

Philadelphia, May 14.—A multitude honored the two sons of Philadelphia who died at Vera Cruz, George DeKenzie Polonsky of the battleship Florida and Charles Allen Smith of the New Hampshire. Nearly 75,000 persons paid tribute to them, the greatest public funeral held in Philadelphia since Abraham Lincoln's body lay in state in Independence hall. So great was the crush of people that scores of women fainted and many were treated for minor injuries. Two men were injured seriously and one probably will die.

DOUBLE MURDER AND SUICIDE

Mother Kills Two Children and Herself.

Nynack, N. Y., May 14.—Double murder, arson and suicide, according to the verdict of the coroner, caused the destruction of the family and home of Edward Kreger in the town of Peard River.

Mrs. Kreger strangled her 16-year-old daughter Florence, the coroner decided, then set fire to the house and burned her four-year-old son Clifford and herself to death. She was temporarily insane, in the opinion of the coroner.

Chicago, May 14.—Continuing his crusade for the political redemption of the First ward, long the stronghold of Hinky Dink Kenna and Bath House John Coughlin, Judge Owens ordered that all polling places in the ward be removed from their present locations.

"I'm going to get them out of saloons, pool rooms and obscure corners generally," declared Judge Owens. "Such places as the art institute and the public library will be used."

Mr. Lowry said last night that in every campaign he was followed by a number of very pretty stories. One was that he had deserted his sick wife and gone off with another man's wife; according to other stories he had been many times in the asylum, a few times in jail and a frequent fugitive from justice. The stories current among the female chattering have to do with sex prevarications.
Some of them would be highly amusing if they were not told with a significant intent.
The perversions of his platform utterances are so well spun as to do credit to a mind almost intelligent.
These same tales and distortions have followed every aggressive religious worker for the last decade. Their birth place is the mind of the sly and crafty. A good motherly brood has been incubated in the last few days and are being used for spice for conversation on the streets and in the back parlor.
Tonight the theme will be "The Unanswerable Question." Friday afternoon Mrs. Moody will address the women of the various church societies. There will be a meeting on Saturday night. The closing service will be held on Sunday night.
There will be a meeting for men in the afternoon addressed by the evangelist and a mass meeting for women conducted by Mrs. Moody.
Sunday will be a full day and a great day. "All out for this last day" is the slogan.
District Bible Study classes will doubtless be organized as the result of the campaign. Mrs. Moody will give instruction along this line Friday afternoon.
Last night Rev. E. E. Satterlee announced the offering for the evangelist to be taken Sabbath. Mr. Gussie Small sang beautifully the solo, "Face to Face." Both were enthusiastically cheered. Mr. Satterlee has just recovered from a few days' of sickness.
The audience appreciated his presence again on the platform.
The theme last evening was "Every Excuse of Man a Condemnation of God." The evangelist said:
Man has always been busy making excuses and thereby throwing the blame back upon God. Adam made the first one, he said, "The woman thou gavest to be with me she gave me of the tree and I did eat." The woman excused herself by saying "the serpent beguiled me and I did eat."
Adam implied that God was to blame for He had given him the woman.
Eve's implication was that God had made the serpent that did the tempting therefore He was to blame. Man ever since has thrown the blame upon God. "He gave me these passions," "He gave me this sharp tongue," "He put within me the possibility of failing."

OVER 500 FOR FIRST DAY'S WORK

Whirlwind Campaign for Members in Chamber of Commerce Brings in a Big Quota

LEADERSHIP OF GEO. B. IRVING

Fine Fellowship Meeting Held at the Iron Exchange Hotel at Super Wednesday Night

Over 500 memberships secured for the first day's campaign for members of the new Chamber of Commerce! The whirlwind campaign inaugurated under the leadership of George B. Irving, municipal expert of Chicago, has been productive of results, results some people would have dreamed impossible.

"The list is now steadily headed towards the 900 goal," said Mr. Irving this morning. "I am sure we shall reach those figures."

On Wednesday evening the various teams of two men each had a fine fellowship meeting at the Iron Exchange hotel and at the supper table different workers told they secured the new members and their recitals encouraged the others who may not have been so successful in rolling in the big lists.

Today the campaign is proceeding unabated. The enthusiasm is at a fever heat. "Nine hundred memberships for the new Chamber of Commerce" is the slogan. There is no such word as fail.

The members of the Chamber of Commerce secured the first day are: Geo. Adcock, S. R. Adair, S. F. Alderman, J. H. Alderman, Frank C. Alexander, John P. Anderson, Benjamin Armstrong, Alvin A. ### REVIVAL MEETINGS AT TABERNACLE one consent began to make excuse. So it has been since. There is an excuse for everything.

One man says "Lord, I would follow Thee but the Christian life is too hard." This man charges God with making the way of salvation too hard.

The charge is, however, ill founded. Nowhere in the Scripture does it say that the Christian way is too hard. "The way of the transgressor is hard." That is Scriptural, and it is also a matter of daily proof. The victims of sin are the ones who bear a heavy burden.

Ask the drunkard, the harlot, the gambler, the saloonist, the unruly and the defiler. They will tell you to a man that the way of the transgressor is hard and keeps getting harder. The Christian is the man who is having the best time of it. After all is said and done the Christian is the best off.

Another says, "I would follow thee but I haven't time." The blame is on God. He hasn't given enough time. The farmer says it, the business man says it, the wage worker says it, "I'm too busy, too busy." It is too bad that God didn't make ten days in the week and five hundred days in the year! Yet, that wouldn't be enough time for the man who hasn't enough time now.

God wants busy men. He never has called an idler and never will. The great men of the Bible were all busy men. That is the only kind God can use. Hoboes, tramps, bums and loafers are the great leisure class of America and there never was a Christian man among them.

Another man offers as his excuse that his circumstances are peculiar. "I can't be a Christian and continue my business." Better far get out of it. No man can afford to go to hell for a few dollars. He's selling out too cheap. Judas sold out altogether too cheap. Other men who offer this excuse are selling out just as cheaply. "What will it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

Another says: "I can't understand the Bible." Those who say this take little pains to understand it. The way of salvation is so plain that "the wayfaring man though a fool can understand." Let any man make the attempt to understand and it will become clear to him.

Another says, "there are hypocrites in the church." Do not be discouraged on that account there is always room for one more. You should join the church, hypocrites are lonely without you. They need a ring leader and chief usher. "The church," you say, "is full of hypocrites," so is hell.

Those who make this excuse point out their stumbling block then proceed to fall over it. Every hypocrite will be in hell at last. I can afford to associate with them on earth a while in order to avoid them in the life to come.

Another says, "I can't hold out." No man can unless he have the help of God Almighty. Not a single man can live anywhere near the standard of a Christian in his own strength. We are "kept by the power of God through faith."

Those who fail in the Christian life are the ones who do not make a full surrender of themselves. They hold on to some known sins that they are not willing to give up. These gradually supplant the former good intentions. The only way to count on help from above is to throw up both hands and say "I surrender." Any reservation of any pet sin will make your fall certain.

Men surrender yourselves to God. Put yourselves on record. "He stands at the door and knocks." You cannot fool God. Make no compromise. Do not put off the invitation, there is no tomorrow. Better tonight than any time. It is easier now than it ever will be again.

NOKAY NOTELETS

Ben Smith and sister of Neutral, were callers at T. C. Pointon's Saturday afternoon. They attended the social and dance at Nokay Lake hall in the evening.

J. C. Barker, of Chicago, is stopping at his summer home, Twin Oaks, for a few days, overseeing the work to be done before the family arrives for the summer.

Everybody is busy now days with their farm work. The cold, dainty spring weather has put them behind with their work.

The school in Dist. 31 will close this week and children and teacher are looking forward to their vacation with pleasure.

The Nokay Lake ball club took in $81.50 at their social Saturday night which was very good considering the small crowd. The night was ideal and there was no excuse for fans not turning out and supporting their team. But the few loyal fans that did come were real generous in helping the team. The boys would have done much better had there been baskets enough to go around. A number of girls forgot to bring baskets.

The ball game Sunday on the Woodrow diamond between the Brainerd Pickets and the Nokay Eagles was very much one sided, the score being 27 to 2 with the Eagles on the long end. The Eagles had their batting clothes on and hammered the pill to all corners of the lot. Although Brainerd changed pitchers several time none were able to check the hard hitting Eagles. Novotny pitched shut-out ball for the Eagles, Brainerd's two runs being made on errors. The rooting of the Nokay Lake fans was the feature.

Manager Cannon signed up Outfielder Gooler this week. Gooler is a good outfielder and ought to strengthen the team in that department.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for sheriff of Crow Wing county and respectfully solicit the support of all voters at the primary election to be held June 16, 1914, and if nominated and elected I pledge my best efforts in serving the people of the county.
